WHEELING, MARCH 11, 1893.

A Nation of Americans.

Cracks at Secretary of the Navy Herbert for having been a Confederate soldier are out of place and wide of the mark. No man in Congress or out of it has done more according to his opportunity to build up a navy worthy of this great country, and unless all signs fail he will use his greater opportunities to the same patriotic end.

More than this, it should be admitted cheerfully, because it is undeniably true, that in case of war none would be quicker to don the blue and wear it bravely than the men who were the gray and followed the fortunes of the Confederacy. The very few who have not allowed themselves to be reconstructed would be overwhelmed by the contempt of their neighbors.

From the Canadian line to the Gulf of Mexico this is once more a nation of Americans. Nobody understands this better than the powers of Europe. Why should any American pretend to doubt it?

SECRETARY GRESHAM chops off John C. New's head very early in the game. New was an ardent Harrison man. Gresham is not strongly drawn to a Harrison man. Therefore he swings the ax with "ghoulish glee."

Dollars to Principles.

The Charleston News and Courier, speaking for its cotton-planting constituents, demands protection for its raw cotton. From the Democratic party, to which the South Carolina newspaper belongs? This is too much.

Presently some Democratic newspaper in Pennsylvania will be howling "Hands off!" and another in Connecticut will take up the wild refrain when the Democratic Congress tackles iron, tobacco and goes plunging through the schedules. These Democratic brethren must remember that no matter how hard free trade hits or how much it hurts, it is a great principle to which the Democratic party is committed.

Are such utilitarian considerations as business and wages and bread and butter to stand in the way of a lofty principle? Perish the thought!

Is Pugilist Hall gets another go at Kangaroo Fitzsimmons he would do well to leave his jaw outside the arena. Fitz has proved himself one of the very finest of jawsmiths.

A Trap for the Standard.

George Rice, the plucky Marietta refiner who has been fighting the Standard oil outfit these many years, is the proud possessor of two shares of Standard trust stock. On the strength of this he has gone into court and asked for an accounting.

If his prayer be granted there will be such a ripping up of Standard affairs as has not been seen. This is the use Mr. Rice has for the trust shares.

If ever the truth, the whole truth, comes out there will be a revelation of grinding monopoly that will startle the world, notwithstanding all the evil the world believes of that giant combination of law-breakers.

One of the inauguration aids has died of pneumonia the result of exposure. Change inauguration day!

Has It a Meaning?

Observe the appointment of Mr. Maxwell, of New York, to be fourth assistant postmaster general, the cutter-off of postmasters' heads. Maxwell held office under Governor Hill and was ousted because he was too much a Cleveland man.

What does this appointment mean? A challenge to Hill in spite of that statesman's visit to the white house? It is related that on that occasion Hill went off quickly and walked away rapidly, by that same token conveying the impression that he had no desire to linger longer.

CARL SCHENZ is there, but President Cleveland seems unable to find him. There is danger that he may think himself overlooked.

May Be an Exception.

Although President Cleveland has said that none of his old office-holders need apply, it is believed in Washington that Brother Miller, the genial West Virginian who seeks again the commissionership of internal revenue, will be an exception. President Cleveland is fond of him generally and particularly admires his good qualities as a fisherman.

Commissioner Miller used to make it very pleasant for West Virginians when they called on him, and there are many who would like to see him armed once more with the bung-starter and the gauge, proper implements of his office.

Organized Labor and Strikes.

Chief Arthur, of the locomotive brotherhood, anticipates no trouble between the men of his order and the Ann Arbor company and the men it may employ. "Our men," says Mr. Arthur, "have imperative orders not to interfere with the new men or with the operation of the road. If the company can get along without our men all well and good. When our men see that the company is operating the road without them, they will seek employment elsewhere."

Chief Sargent, of the brotherhood of firemen, says his order never asks the discharge of a non-union man, but tries to show by good service that its men are best worth having. He adds: "Our men know that they must not interfere in any way with the operation of the road, neither must they interfere with the employees of the road."

These are the law-abiding, reasonable views of the heads of two labor organizations which command the public respect by deserving it. It is very different from the mob doctrine preached by some alleged labor leaders, who try to impose their views as the accepted doctrine of organized labor.

AFTER the mud of the streets is got together in piles it is bad form to let it be dragged over the streets again. The cart should be on more intimate terms with the hoe.

Better Than a Monument.

Since it has become known that Governor McKinley's trustees, in spite of his refusal, would receive subscriptions for the benefit of the trust, money has been coming in at a rate which encourages the belief that the whole amount will soon be made up. A committee for active work has been formed in New England.

It is a good cause, worthy of all assistance. That good and great man should be set free from the hard bondage of debt. This is better than to build a monument to his memory after he shall have worn out his useful life trying to work off the burden.

WASHINGTON is very well in its way, but the new secretary of the interior will sigh for his Georgia home about water melon time. There is a very interesting relation of the water melon to the interior department.

Misplaced Confidence.

Manufacturers who located in the Ohio gas fields are wondering what they shall do to be saved. They must have more gas or get where there is coal.

There are some eligible manufacturing sites in and about Wheeling, some on the Ohio side, some on the West Virginia side. There will be plenty of coal here when the time comes for the world to be consumed by fire.

After all, a certain, abundant and cheap fuel supply is better than free sites and large promises. The manufacturers who were caught by those allurements were not wise. Put not your trust in natural gas.

If that inconsiderate thief will return to the governor of Wyoming his lost trousers his expellency will be able to resume the active discharge of his important duties. Is the machinery of a great state to be ruthlessly deranged in this way?

At the Convention and After.

President Cleveland desires it understood that the reasons will have to be exceptional to induce him to appoint any of his subordinates of the old regime. Warming-pans and hot drinks should have been issued with this message.

These prescribed patriots had a big hand in nominating Mr. Cleveland. Without them his fat would have been in the fire. And what a conflagration that would have made. It begins to look as though Mr. Cleveland is afflicted with ossification of the heart.

RATHER than issue bonds Secretary Carlisle will use so much of the $100,000,000 gold reserve as may be required to hold up silver. What will the Democrats say to this? Isn't it a crime to touch any of the gold reserve? True, the law doesn't say so, but Democrats have been saying it. It is a great pity that Congress did not break with the silver kings and set the currency straight.

JOSEPH QUINCY was one of the tooters for the Democratic national committee, and Josiah settles down as assistant secretary of state. There is no "demoralizing madness" about this. It is just the ordinary article of partisan politics, paying the laborer his hire.

THE Indiana senators and a big batch of Hoosiers besides are mad over the appointment of Isaac Pusey Gray to go to Mexico and drink pulque in the name of the United States. President Cleveland doesn't care who is agitated. How long can this gait last?

JUDAS JESUS, the eminent Pennsylvanian who was to be called to the bedside of the Democratic party as a member of the Cleveland cabinet, has suddenly and mysteriously disappeared from the Washington gossip column. But Hoke Smith has been discovered.

THE Washington Post says that the inauguration demonstration "was what might be termed a jag of joy." Jag, say you?

Some in rags
And some in jags
And some in tiger skins.

KERNE promptly denies that he is engineering a deal in anything. The desire of his life seems to be to have the world know that he has reformed and is now above the tricks of the market-riggers. Good man to watch.

THE gentle activity of the street scavenger is one of the beautiful harbingers of spring.

BREAKFAST BUDGET.

The father of one young woman who, it has been reported, was to marry Paderewski, pronounces the rumor "untrue and outrageous." The lady is Miss Etta Dunham, of New York, to whose family the musician took letters of introduction two years ago.

Only one out of thirteen elephants in Barnum's collection at Bridgeport could withstand the approach of a mouse without being thrown into pitiful panic. The experiment was tried, the mouse being held captive by a piece of string.

It has been the costume of the Delaware legislature for many years to appropriate a small sum for annual distribution among the Sunday schools of the state, of course without any invidious distinction to sect.

A Detroit school uses the Columbia postage stamps as a text for essays. They form quite a picture gallery, and as is generally known, are descriptive of the discovery of this country.

The first of all American cabinets was the youngest in average age. It consisted of Jefferson, 46; Hamilton, 32; Randolph, 36; Knox, 39, and Osgood, 41—average age, nearly 39 years.

PERSONAL POINTS.

After the writing of his "History of English Literature" the late M. Taine was overcome by intellectual exhaustion and for a long time was utterly incapable of study or even of reading or writing.

Ex-Princess Kaiulani is said to have much musical taste and to be fond of playing the kilihi, an instrument that is described as a "cross between the guitar and mandolin."

Three brothers named Carr were married by a fourth brother, who is a clergyman in Newark, last Saturday. The car-coupler act is working with marked success.

Right Clever.

The WHEELING INTELLIGENCER'S illustration of the Democratic office-seekers of West Virginia on their way to the capital was right clever.

AMONG THE EXCHANGES.

Encouraging Plutocracy.

We in the United States require a cabinet minister to expend about $40,000 a year in consequence of his incumbency of a public office, and pay him only $8,000 a year. If this is not encouraging plutocracy there is no such thing as encouraging it. How many of the men in Virginia who are best qualified to fill a cabinet office could afford to accept one?

Prepare for the Worst.

The Democratic party is waiting to learn from President Cleveland what its own mind is on public questions, and Mr. Cleveland is devoutly awaiting a revelation from somewhere as to what in his judgment ought to be done. Meantime there is nothing for the people to do but to grab a root and shut their eyes, prepared for the worst.

Something Needed.

"Next fall Kansas will vote on an amendment extending the suffrage to women. Something ought to be done with the voting population of that state. It is either too large or not large enough to carry on self-government with ordinary success.

Will Make Him Tired.

When the President furnishes loose Secretary Hoke Smith upon veteran pensioners he will do well to let Secretary Gresham retire. The latter carries around too much lead and has too many wounds to make such talk pleasant to him.

Good Advice.

Every removal and appointment should be made with the view of securing an honest and efficient public service and of bringing the administration of the people's affairs into harmony with Democratic principles.

Alarming Indications.

There are still alarming indications that the St. Louis Republic will sever its connections with the United States of America the moment Hawaii comes into the union.

Not the Kentucky Style.

Perhaps Mr. Cleveland did not consult his Kentucky cook before suggesting to his executive family that "cabin pudding" should be served slowly.

This Fits Wheeling.

Philadelphia Times.
Dirt, dirt, dirt.
From the road's middle line to the curb,
And it's muck, filth and slush.
With noise to remove or disturb
We long to get over, and look
Till the eyes grow worn and dim;
But it's much too liquid to walk across
And it's far too thick to swim.

Have contractors human souls?
Are they filled with senate blood?
Or have they decreed in their high estate
That instead of dust we're mud?
It would seem we've got but one escape,
To tear the wrong up by the stem,
And if they won't do it there is naught that's left
But to wipe up the earth with them!

BABY ONE SOLID SORE.

Tried Everything Without Relief—No Rest Night or Day—Cured by Cuticura Remedies.

"My baby, when two months old, had a breaking-out with what the doctors called eczema. Her head, arms, feet and hands were each one solid sore. I tried everything, but neither the doctors nor anything else did her any good. We could get no rest day or night with her. In my extremity I tried Cuticura Remedies. To my great surprise, in one week's time after beginning to use the CUTICURA Remedies, the sores were well, but I continued to use the RESOLVENT for a little while, and now she is as fat a baby as you could wish to see, and as sound as a dollar. I believe my baby would have died if I had not tried CUTICURA Remedies. I write this that every mother with a baby like mine can feel confident that there is a medicine that cures the worst eczema, and that medicine is the CUTICURA Remedies.

Mrs. BETTIE BIRKNER, Lockhart, Texas.

Cuticura Remedies
Cure every humor of the skin and scalp of infancy and childhood, whether torturing, disfiguring, itching, burning, scaly, crusty, pimply, or blotchy, with loss of hair, and every injury of the blood, whether simple scurfiness, or hereditary, when the best physicians and all other remedies fail. Parents save your children years of mental and physical suffering. Begin now. Cures made in childhood are permanent.

CUTICURA Remedies are the greatest skin cures. Blood purifiers, and humor remedies of modern times, are absolutely pure, and may be used on the youngest infant with the most gratifying success.

Sold everywhere. Price, CUTICURA, 50c; SOAP, 25c; RESOLVENT, $1. Prepared by the S. P. POTTER DRUG & CHEMICAL CO., Lowell, Mass. Be sure you get the "How to Cure Skin Diseases," 64 pages of illustrations, and 100 testimonials, and only skin cured by CUTICURA SOAP.

SPRING NEEDS.

In Considering Your Wants Do Not Forget This.

If You Do You Will Make a Serious Mistake at This Season.

Something of Deep and Peculiar Interest Just Now.

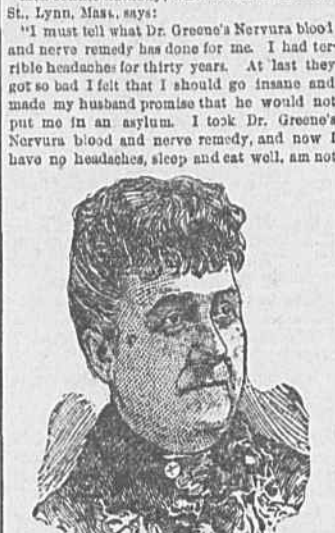

There are many needs during the spring months, but none more necessary or urgent than the use of a spring medicine. The blood requires it and the nerves, liver, kidneys and bowels must have it if you desire to keep strong and vigorous and maintain your good health. Those who are weak, tired and nervous must take it and those who do not feel just right should do so, or serious ill health may follow.

Mrs. Charles Krueger, of 529 East 8th St., New York City, tells you what is by far the best remedy to take in the spring:

"For several years I have been suffering from a complication of malaria, kidney and liver complaints, and dyspepsia in its worst form. I began taking Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy. I have used six bottles, and now feel entirely relieved of all my former complaints, and do cheerfully recommend it to anyone who may be afflicted with any of the above troubles."

Mrs. Jennie Anthony, who resides at 21 Green St., Lynn, Mass., says: "I must tell what Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy has done for me. I had terrible headaches for thirty years. At last they got so bad I felt that I should go insane and made my husband promise that he would not put me in an asylum. I took Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, and now I have no headaches, sleep and eat well, am not nervous, my kidneys are healthy and blood pure. "In short, I was saved from that terrible fate, insanity or prostration by this wonderful remedy."

You will see, therefore, that Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy is just what you need to invigorate and enrich your blood, strengthen your nerves, and get the liver, kidneys and bowels in a natural and healthy condition. It is purely vegetable and harmless, and is for sale by druggists for $1. Dr. Greene, of 55 West 14th Street, New York, discovered it and he is the most successful specialist in curing nervous and chronic diseases. He can be consulted free, personally or by letter.
